There are several applicants for the position of road overseer in this district. Among the number are several republicans, but from the political complexion of the new board of supervisors it would seem to us that some democrat will knock the persimmon.

BORN—to the wife of Morris Marks, of Solomonville, last week, a boy. The news reached Bisbee in letter to his brother Emil, who is the proprietor of the City Barber shop. Morris at one time was also a resident of Bisbee. The editor of the REVIEW takes special delight in wishing Morris, Jr., long life and prosperity.

The dance given in the opera house Christmas eve was a most enjoyable affair. The REVIEW reporter has failed to hear a single criticism. Particular pains had been taken by those who had the arrangements in hand to make this ball a pleasant part of the Christmas festivities and the result attained prove that their efforts were well rewarded.

C. C. Warner will leave in a few days for Phoenix where he will take his seat in the council of the 21st legislature. Charley Warner was a power in the last legislature and was admired for his straight forward manner in dealing with all public questions, by both democrats and republicans. We understand the woman suffragists are going to make another mighty effort this term and the REVIEW is depending on Charley Warner to block the game.

A long string of hobos were hauled up before Judge Williams Wednesday morning—fifteen in number. The judge called the roll and after listening to several tales of woe sentenced the entire lot to ninety days on the road. One of the number offered a compromise by promising to leave town if the judge would revoke the sentence. The compromise was accepted and the entire lot left town the same morning.

J. H. Mathias, an old resident of Bisbee, has accepted the position of jailor at Tombstone and left yesterday to assume his new duties. Mr. Mathias has helped to build Bisbee. He is a carpenter by trade and worked on the smelter when the plant was first erected. Mr. Mathias promises to make it pleasant as possible for any of the Bisbee boys if they become guests at the Hotel Lewis during his term.

Carl Clawson, mechanical engineer who represents the Union Iron Works of San Francisco, was an outgoing passenger Sunday morning en route to California for the holidays. Mr. Clawson makes his headquarters in Bisbee and visits all the mining camps in this section of the territory including Mexico.

The Bisbee post-office is entirely inadequate to meet the demands of the public. Mr. Pritchard, the postmaster says he does the best he can with the force he is allowed, but the fact remains that the people of Bisbee should take up this matter before the department and insist that Bisbee be given better post-office facilities.

The plant of the Copper Queen is at a standstill this week and the noise of the hammer is the only sound that breaks the quiet around the works. This is the annual period for the repairs at the works and will consume from five to six days. Another converter is being placed which will make five converter stands. The new Mitchell furnace will not be ready for operation for at least thirty days.

The Bisbee Whist Club was pleasantly entertained by Mr. Chandler at the residence of John Hankins on School Hill Friday. Mrs. Dyer succeeded in carrying away the ladies first prize, and the baby—a box of cigars was won by one of the gentlemen present. A. C. Davis entertained the club by some slight off-hand tricks which were very clever. Refreshments made up a part of the enjoyable evening.

On motion of Mr. Charles Blenman Thursday afternoon in the district court at Tucson, William F. Downing was admitted to bail on the charge of attempting to rob the United States mail in the Cochise hold-up in the sum of $3,000. The indictment against Downing on a similar charge in the Fairbank hold up was dismissed by the United States attorney after his attention was called to the fact that Downing's name was included in that indictment by mistake.

C. A. Overlook returned from Overlook townsite last Saturday to spend Christmas in Bisbee. Mr. Overlook will return again this week with another load of lumber for a new building which will be erected on one of his lots. At present there is not a building boom at the new town. People who intended to get in first appear to be waiting to see just where the railroad will run and what point the junction will be located. Rumor is to the effect that a compromise may be effected and that Douglas townsite and Overlook townsite will be merged into one. The end of the South Western railroad is still at the big bridge about six miles from Don Luis. Upon the completion of this bridge it is expected that the track will be laid into Douglas within two weeks. Work has been delayed on account of the non-arrival of bridge timbers.

Dr. E. G.
